The Feast of the Nativity of Saint John the Baptist, June 24th

St. John the Baptist, the kinsman of Jesus and the son of the priest Zechariah and his wife Elizabeth, is the only saint other than the Virgin Mary whose birthday is celebrated by the Church in a liturgical feast. Other saints are remembered by the day of their death when they entered the kingdom of heaven. Like the announcement of the birth of Jesus, St. John's birth was announced by the archangel Gabriel. John's father received the news of his son's impending birth while he was serving in his priestly duties at the Temple in Jerusalem. The angel announced to the elderly Zechariah that God had heard his prayers, and he and his barren wife would become the parents of a son. The angel instructed the terrified Zechariah that he was to name this child John, which means "Yahweh is gracious" in Hebrew. Then the angel told Zechariah that the child would be filled with the Holy Spirit from the womb, and his life would be dedicated entirely to God's service in the spirit of the great prophet Elijah . Because Zechariah did not believe the message of Gabriel, he was rendered speechless until the time of John's birth. His relatives wanted to name the child after his father, but Zechariah wrote, "His name is John", and immediately he could speak. The tongue is released because a voice is being born – for when John was already heralding the Lord, he was asked, 'Who are you?' and he replied, 'I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness.' John was born at the time of the year (June 24) when the day begins to grow shorter after the summer solstice, whereas the Nativity of Christ occurs (December 25) when the day begins to grow longer after the winter solstice. These facts are spoken later, by John, after the beginning of Christ's preaching: He must increase, but I must decrease (John 3:30).

COVID-19 update

Easing of restrictions – the current rules

- Masks are no longer necessary when attending churches.
- Congregational singing is permitted.
- Singers or choir members should still remain 1.5 metres away from each other and from members of the congregation.
- There is no limit on how many people can attend Masses, weddings, funerals and other religious services subject to observing the 2m2 rule. This does not include the celebrant or church workers. Families can sit together, but if people do not belong in the same household, they must observe physical distancing of 1.5 metres. Parishes should have public signs with advice on this or have ushers or people assisting at Masses.
- Avoid congestion before or after Mass – have strategies in place for managing people entering or leaving the Church. Attendees should also maintain a safe distance when lining up for communion.
- The same rules apply to Masses and other religious services held outdoors on Parish premises.
