Dear Friends

The gospel of the Good Samaritan challenges us to tear down the walls of economic class between the rich and the poor; the walls of social class between the leader and the led; the borders we have erected between those who belong to us and those who do not as well as the walls of self-centeredness and stinginess in our lives.

What this means is that Christianity is not only a body of doctrine to believe and recite but a way of life to live out. It is not on our lips to profess and proclaim; but in our hands to touch and share.
