Dear friends

The readings of today's Mass remind us that everyone of us has a vocation. Jesus is calling each one of us just as he called the people in the Gospel today: Follow me!

Jesus comes to us where we are at — in our homes, at work, in our social relationships. He comes to us in the people we meet, in the circumstances of our days. These are the places where he calls us and says to each one of us, where we are at: Follow me!

So when you are at home, with your children and your spouse, or when you are at work or with your neighbours; every moment, you have a chance to follow Jesus. Every moment you have a chance to serve God!

Also this weekend we have a group of children who will receive their Sacrament of Confirmation. Congratulations to you all and please pray together for these children that their new journey of faith will be full of joy and blessing with the outpouring of the Holy Spirit. Fr Moses
