Plenary Indulgence for Feast of all Souls' Day during the month of November

This year, the indulgence can be obtained by anyone who visits a cemetery, even if only mentally, on any day in November, and devoutly prays for the faithful departed. In this case, the indulgence is obtained by "devoutly visiting a church or an oratory", along with the recitation of the Our Father and the Creed, and the other requirements associated with a Plenary Indulgence (Sacramental Confession, reception of Holy Communion and a prayer for the Holy Father's intentions). May They Rest In Peace.

History of All Saints and All Souls Day

A feast of all martyrs was kept on May 13 in the Eastern church according to Ephraem Syrus (died c. 373), which may have determined the choice of May 13 by Pope Boniface IV when he dedicated the Pantheon in Rome as a church in honour of the Blessed Virgin and all martyrs in 609. The first evidence for the November 1 date of celebration and of the broadening of the festival to include all saints as well as all martyrs occurred during the reign of Pope Gregory III (731–741), who dedicated a chapel in St Peter's Rome, on November 1 in honour of all saints. In 837 Pope Gregory III ordered its general observance. In medieval England the festival was known as All Hallows, and its eve is still known as Halloween. The period from October 31 to November 2 (All Souls Day) is sometimes known as Allhallowtide.

All Souls Day Online Mass

Join us for our special All Souls Day Online Mass

Filmed at The Mausoleum of the Resurrection Chapel Rookwood Catholic Cemetery

A special day to reflect and remember those we love. This year we are unable to safely come together at the cemetery due to COVID, so please view the online All Souls Day Mass and follow the online booklet from the comfort of your home.

Companions Matter

Companions Matter is a community program that assists people in reconnecting with the community by offering courses, workshops and social gatherings, at St Mary's Catholic Parish, Erskineville. We are looking for volunteer companions who could commit to supporting attendance at a course, attend morning teas after workshops or seminars, make a weekly phone call, catch up for a coffee and/or walk. For further information, you are invited to attend an online Zoom information session, on November 4, at 7.30pm. To register, please contact peter.carroll@catholiccare.org
