History of the Feast of Corpus Christi

In 1263 a German priest, Fr. Peter of Prague stopped in Bolsena, Italy, to celebrate Mass at the Church of St. Christina. At the time he was having doubts about Jesus being truly present in the Blessed Sacrament. In response to his doubt, when he recited the prayer of consecration as he celebrated the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, blood started seeping from the consecrated host and onto the altar and corporal. Fr. Peter reported this miracle to Pope Urban IV, who at the time was nearby in Orvieto. The pope sent people to investigate and ordered that host and blood-stained corporal be brought to Orvieto. The relics were then placed in the Cathedral of Orvieto, where they remain today. St. Juliana was a nun who had a series of visions, in which she was instructed by Our Lord to establish a liturgical feast for the Holy Eucharist, to which she had a great devotion. After many years of trying, she finally convinced the bishop, the future Pope Urban IV, to create this special feast in honour of the Blessed Sacrament,. Soon after her death, Pope Urban instituted Corpus Christi for the Universal Church and celebrated it for the first time in Orvieto in 1264, a year after the Eucharistic Miracle in Bolsena. Inspired by the miracle, Pope Urban asked St. Thomas Aquinas, a Dominican Friar, to compose the Mass and Office for the feast of Corpus Christi. Aquinas composed the hymns Tantum Ergo, Panis Angelicus, and O Salutaris Hostia which are sung on the feast of Corpus Christi as well as throughout the year during Exposition and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

COVID-19 update

Easing of restrictions – the current rules

- · Masks are no longer necessary when attending churches.
- · Congregational singing is permitted.
- Singers or choir members should still remain 1.5 metres away from each other and from members of the congregation.
- There is no limit on how many people can attend Masses, weddings, funerals and other religious services subject to observing the 2m2 rule. This does not include the celebrant or church workers. Families can sit together, but if people do not belong in the same household, they must observe physical distancing of 1.5 metres. Parishes should have public signs with advice on this or have ushers or people assisting at Masses.
- Avoid congestion before or after Mass have strategies in place for managing people entering or leaving the Church. Attendees should also maintain a safe distance when lining up for communion.
- The same rules apply to Masses and other religious services held outdoors on Parish premises.
