World Meeting of Families

As requested by Pope Francis, and with the encouragement of Archbishop Anthony Fisher OP, the World Meeting of Families will be held locally in the Archdiocese of Sydney to celebrate the sanctity, beauty and vitality of family life from Friday 24 to Sunday 26 June.

On Friday, the celebration begins at parishes with the Feast of the Sacred Heart; followed by Saturday, where families join in a pilgrimage to sites and shrines throughout the Archdiocese; and culminating with celebrating the Eucharist with His Grace at St Marys Cathedral on Sunday with 10:30 am Mass, after which families participate in the 'Festival of Families' beside the cathedral with food, coffee, music, stalls and activities for children.

More information and resources for this event are available at

St Peter and St Paul 29th June

St Peter and St Paul are the two pillars that form the foundation of the early Church. Peter, was known as Simon until Jesus met him and changed his name to "Rock." Jesus singled Peter out, stating, "You are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church, and the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it. I will give you the keys to the kingdom of heaven. Whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven" (Mt 16:18-19). Because of this, Peter is always depicted holding keys; Jesus' words place him at the head of a long line of popes. The story of Peter's triple denial of Jesus during his trial and passion is well-known, as is the post-resurrection appearance when Jesus reconciles with Peter and asks him three times, "Do you love me?" Peter performed the first miracle in the Christian Church—the Acts of the Apostles tell of a man who was disabled from birth who was lying at the Temple gate, asking for alms. Peter and John met him as they were going to the Temple to pray, and when he asked them for money, Peter told him to rise up and walk—and he did (Acts 3:6-8). Peter was killed in a later persecution under the emperor Nero. He died in A.D. 64 when he was crucified with his head downwards because he did not consider himself worthy to die in the same manner and posture as Jesus. Relics of St. Peter, including a portion of the cross on which he died, rest in the reliquary chapel in the Basilica. Paul's name was originally Saul. He worked for the Roman Government and helped lead the arrests and killing of many Christians in Israel and the nearby area. While he was on the road to Damascus in search of Christians there, he had a vision. In the vision Jesus Christ spoke to him, telling Saul that his persecution of Christians was a persecution of Jesus himself, and that it did not please God. Saul was blinded by the vision. A short time later he met Ananias, a disciple of Jesus, and his sight came back to him. (see Acts 22:12). Saul was baptised as a Christian. He travelled around the Roman Empire teaching others about Christianity, and wrote letters back and forth with the churches he helped to begin. The letters contain many important parts of Christian teaching. Paul was put to death by orders of the emperor Nero in 67 AD. He had the rights of a Roman citizen, which meant that he could be put to death by having his head cut off with a sword, rather than by crucifixion
