Saint Benedict

Saint Benedict also known as Saint Benedict of Nursia was born in 480CE, Nursia (Italy). He was the founder of the Benedictine Monastery at Mount Cassino and father of Western Monasticism. Benedict was born of a good family and was sent by his parents to Roman schools. He retired as a young man to Enfide (modern Affile) in the Simbrunian hills and later to a cave in the rocks beside the lake, that existed near the ruins of Nero's palace in the foothills of the Abruzzi. There he lived alone for three years, furnished with food and monastic garb that was given to him by Romanus, a monk of one of the numerous monasteries nearby. Benedict was persuaded to become abbot of one of these monasteries. After, an attempt was made to poison him, he returned to his cave. He founded 12 monasteries, each with 12 monks, with himself in control of all. Later, he settled on a hill rising above Cassino, halfway between Rome and Naples. The district was largely pagan, but the people were converted by his teaching. Benedict was regarded as a wise and mature person, fatherly and loving who was fit to rule and guide others, having found the peace in the acceptance of Christ. In 1964, Pope Paul VI proclaimed him the Patron Saint of Europe. Benedict's feast day is kept by monks on March 21st, the day of his death, and by the Roman Catholic Church in Europe on July 11th. Saint Benedict's medal was designed in 1880 in Montecassino to commemorate the 1400th anniversary of his birth. St Benedict's Medal is famous for granting many favours and miracles, Many followers invoke St Benedict for the protection of their household and to chase evil away.

The V R S N S M V - S M Q L I V B (see below) is the well-known St. Benedict prayer of exorcism against Satan. The medal as a whole seems to suggest that St. Benedict's intercession can impart protection and strength to us believers by giving us the example of a Good Life, summed up in the rule "Ora et Labora".

On the top of the backside of the medal, we see the word PAX, meaning "peace" in Latin, which was the Benedictine motto.
