Saint Simon and Jude

Simon and Jude travelled together to teach others about Jesus. Because of their eyewitness accounts of Jesus' miracles and his death and Resurrection, many people became believers and were baptized. Simon was often called the "Zealot". A zealot is a person who is strongly committed to something. Simon had a nickname to keep people from confusing him with the other apostle named Simon, the one Jesus called Peter. Simon and Jude died for their faith on the same day in Beirut. Jude's body was later returned to Rome where it was buried in a crypt under St Peter's Basilica. Jude was also known as "Jude Thaddeus". Jude is the patron saint of hopeless cases and desperate situations. People often pray to Jude when they feel that there is no one else to turn to. They ask Jude to bring their problem to Jesus. Because Jude had such great faith, we know that nothing is impossible for those who believe in the Lord.
