A Mother's Day Prayer

Lord,

Thank you for my Mother.

Thank you for blessing me with a Mother who is kind, loving, strong.

Bless her and protect her.

May you give her peace in times of worry and distress.

May you give her comfort in times of sadness,

May you give her hope when she feels hopeless,

and may her heart be filled with joy each day.

Let her feel your unconditional love and forgiveness

as she has unconditionally loved me.

May she feel loved and cherished on this day.

Amen.

History of Mother's Day.

The idea for Mother's day grew out of calls for peace and anti-war campaigns following the American Civil War (1861-65). In 1870, American women's rights activist Julia Ward Howe, appealed to women to unite and bring peace throughout the world (later known as the Mother's Day Proclamation). She proposed that a mother's day for peace be commemorated every year in June. But the idea of mother's day did not gain momentum until 1908, when West Virginia woman Anna Marie Jarvis held a church memorial to honour the legacy of her mother, Ann Reeves Jarvis. Ann Jarvis had been a peace activist who nursed wounded soldiers during the Civil War and created mother's day work clubs to address public health issues. Anna Jarvis wanted to continue her mother's work and pushed to have a day set aside to honour all mothers. In 1914 her campaigning paid off, when US president Woodrow Wilson officially declared the second Sunday in May to be Mother's Day. But it was not until 1924, following the losses of World War I, that Mother's Day was first held in Australia. Sydney woman Janet Heyden, started the tradition after becoming concerned for the lonely, forgotten aged mothers at Newington State Hospital where she regularly visited a friend. She successfully campaigned for local schools and businesses to donate gifts to the ladies. It was during the 1920s that Mother's Day became commercialised in the United States, with card companies like Hallmark and florists marketing gifts.

MOM

For all the times that I forgot to "thank-you,"
For all the special, little things you do,
For all the words that sometimes go unspoken,
I need to say, "I love you, Mom...I do.

I love you for the way you stop and listen,
And for your kind support throughout the years,
For teaching me the meaning of compassion,
And sharing in my triumphs and my tears.

And, if at times, I may have seemed ungrateful,
I want to say, "I truly hope you see,
That nothing you have done has been forgotten,
And day by day you just mean more to me.

Happy Mother's Day to all our Mother's, Grand Mother's and StepMothers

Thank you for all the wonderful things you do.

May God shower abundant blessings on you and may you have a very special day being spoilt by your families.

For the Mothers no longer with us
RIP. You will never be forgotten.
