Prayer for Souls in Purgatory.

Eternal Father, I offer Thee the Most Precious Blood of Thy Divine Son, Jesus, in union with the masses said throughout the world today, for all the holy souls in purgatory, for sinners everywhere, for sinners in the universal church, those in my own home and within my family. Amen.

The Feast of Christ the King

The solemnity of Christ the King is celebrated on the last Sunday of Ordinary Time (the last Sunday of the liturgical calendar). The celebration of Christ's dominion was moved in 1970 by Pope Paul VI from its original date. The feast was instituted in 1925 by Pope Pius XI. He proclaimed, "Pax Christi in regno Christi" (the peace of Christ in the reign of Christ), saying that we live in the peace of Christ when we surrender our lives to him every day, accept him as our God, Saviour, and King and allow him to rule our lives. We are reminded of the importance of making Christ the centre of our lives.

St Andrew Dung Lac

Andrew Dung-Lac, a Catholic convert ordained to the priesthood, was one of 117 people martyred in Vietnam between 1820 and 1862. Members of the companions group gave their lives for Christ in the 17th, 18th, and 19th centuries, and received beatification during four different occasions between 1900 and 1951. All were canonized during the papacy of Saint John Paul II.

Christianity came to Vietnam through the Portuguese. Jesuits opened the first permanent mission at Da Nang in 1615. They ministered to Japanese Catholics who had been driven from Japan. By 1954, there were over a million Catholics—about seven percent of the population—in the north. Buddhists represented about 60 percent. Persistent persecution forced some 670,000 Catholics to abandon lands, homes and possessions and flee to the south. In 1964, there were still 833,000 Catholics in the north, but many were in prison. In the south, Catholics were enjoying the first decade of religious freedom in centuries, their numbers swelled by refugees.
